

TARI AGIOBU

(AGM, HUMAN RESOURCES AND CORPORATE SERVICES)

Tari Agiobu is a seasoned Human Resources professional with a dynamic career spanning the aviation, manufacturing, telecommunications, and maritime sectors. She currently heads the Human Resources and Corporate Services team at Starz Investment Company Limited, where she leads strategic people initiatives, oversees both crew and shore-based teams, and ensures operational excellence in a highly regulated environment.

Tari is known for her people-first approach, blending structure with empathy to foster highperforming, inclusive, and future-ready workplaces. Her areas of focus include talent management, organizational effectiveness, regulatory compliance, and employee engagement, all of which are critical to driving business results and building a strong internal culture.

She holds an MBA in Sustainability from Nexford University and a Bachelor's Degree in Curriculum Studies & Educational Technology (Mathematics) from the University of Port Harcourt. As a Member of the Nigerian Institute of Management (NIM) and an Associate of the Chartered Institute of Personnel Management (ACIPM), she is deeply committed to continuous learning and professional excellence.

Tari brings clarity and a genuine passion for people to her role ensuring that HR remains a true business enabler at every level of the organization.